

3. INITIAL THOUGHTS

- My biological inspiration was the froghopper, as it can leap incredibly far (100 times their body length)
- I also thought that building something that could go far would be fun
- Thus, my PDG was to maximize horizontal distance
 - Quantifiable by measuring the hop distance and launch angle
 - A ~ 45 -degree launch angle will maximize the horizontal distance

