WIRING: CHALLENGES

Wire Interference	It is important that the wires do not impede the motion of the robot arm Since the robot rotates it is easy for the wires to get caught
Extension Wires	Extension wires were needed because not all components of the arm will always be close to the Arduino When using extension wires it is important to be careful that they're connected in the proper order